NOTICE

Illinois Statute, IL S 3714, stipulates life insurance carriers shall not issue an individual life insurance policy in the State of Illinois unless the applicant, in addition to him or herself, appoints a Secondary Addressee. The insurer, 5 Star Life Insurance Company, shall notify the policy owner annually of the legal right to appoint one or several persons. The policy owner may change or add a designated Secondary Addressee at any time. The designated Secondary Addressee will receive, in addition to the policy owner and agent, lapse or termination of coverage notices due to nonpayment of premiums.
